Newman's Own Organics Recalls Peanut Butter Cookies Due to Possible Salmonella Contamination

Juneau, AK. – Newman's Own Organics is recalling Peanut Butter Newman-O's Sandwich Crème Cookies because they contain nut butter ingredients manufactured by Sunland, Inc. that have been recalled for possible Salmonella contamination.

Salmonella is an organism that can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Healthy persons infected with Salmonella often experience fever, diarrhea (which may be bloody), nausea, vomiting and abdominal pain beginning 12-72 hours after infection. The illness usually lasts four to seven days. In rare circumstances, infection with Salmonella can result in the organism getting into the bloodstream and producing more severe illnesses such as arterial infections (i.e., infected aneurysms), endocarditis, and arthritis. People exhibiting any of these symptoms should contact their healthcare provider.

Products manufactured with the expiration dates shown below should not be consumed. The expiration dates are located on the side panels of the boxes or packages but are not marked with the words "Expiration Date" or "Use By Date."
